101 women who set out from the Doğubayazıt district of Ağrı to celebrate the 101st anniversary of the Republic of Turkey with the sunrise in Adıyaman Nemrut Mountain visited the historical tourist attractions of Van.

VAN - In Ağrı, 101 women who came together by the Doğubayazıt Noah's Ark Search and Rescue Association to draw attention to violence against women and to celebrate the 101st anniversary of the Republic, visit the historical and touristic areas in the Eastern and Southeastern Anatolia Region with the event they call 'Love March'. The second stop of 101 women who set out from Doğubayazıt district of Ağrı to celebrate the 101st anniversary of the Republic of Turkey with the sunrise on Mount Nemrut in Adıyaman was Van. Women who first visited Van Castle spent the night establishing a camp in Gevaş district. The group, which visited Akdamar Island, then left Van to go to Mardin. 101 women will celebrate the 101st anniversary of the Republic by watching the sunrise on Mount Nemrut on October 29, 2024, as part of their visits.

Stating that they have been organizing 'No to Violence against Women' for the last 3 years, Noah's Ark Search and Rescue Association President Ahmet Ertuğrul said, "In addition to 81 provinces of Turkey, we held our first event, Ağrı Mountain summit climb to this organization. We carried this abroad under the name of 'no to violence against women', 'way of love' and 'love march'. We also do it in Georgia. This event covers the dates between 22-29 October 2024. The goal here is actually to see our ancient lands. A journey that will start from Doğubayazıt and end in Şanlıurfa. We set out with such an idea for our people to see this region and to see the historical and cultural areas of Van, the 'Göbeklitepe' in Şanlıurfa, the Ark of Hazret-i Noah in Ağrı Mountain, the town and the ancient lands here.

"We will celebrate the 101st anniversary of the Republic with 101 women"

Ertuğrul said, "At the same time, in the 101st year of the October 29th Republic, we will participate in the sunrise with 101 women in the early hours of the morning on Nemrut Mountain in Adıyaman."

Aynur Alikara, who attended the event from Istanbul, said, "It is a nice event. We attended this event from Istanbul with many of our friends. This trip was more comprehensive. We are very happy to be in such an event. It has a meaning, 'love march'. We say no to every form of evil of violence," he said.
